2016 GRAY MONKEY PARADE

The Gray Monkey Parade was started in 1946 by Miss Lolita Daigre, a first grade teacher at the Plaquemine Elementary School. The Iberville Parish Library adopted the Gray Monkey family, and re-started the parade in 1985.

The 31st annual Gray Monkey Parade will roll again on Friday, April 15 at 12:30 p.m. on Railroad Avenue. The parade is open to any pre-schoolers in the parish who would like to participate.
This year's theme: On Your Mark, Get Set...Read!

Parking: There will be parking available in the public parking area (excluding 30 minute parking areas and reserved parking areas) behind the Veteran's Memorial adjacent to City Hall. Parking will also be available along designated streets (be sure not to block any driveways or fire hydrants and observe "No Parking" signs.)

Line Up: All participants should line up at 12:00 noon at the parade's starting point at Meriam Street & Railroad Avenue next to City Hall.

Parade Route: at 12:30 p.m. sharp the parade will start from Meriam Street and cross Railroad Avenue, then turn left and move down the Avenue to Main Street [Depot Market]. It will U-Turn at Main Street and come back on Railroad Avenue to end back on Meriam Street!

All entries must be walking or hand-pulled.
NO BIKES, MOTORIZED VEHICLES OR PEDAL-POWERED RIDING TOYS SUCH AS "BIG WHEELS" WILL BE ALLOWED.
This policy is to insure the safety of all participants.
Members of the Plaquemine City Police Department and the Iberville Parish Sheriff's Office will be present to monitor traffic.

Anyone interested in participating should call the Iberville Parish Library to register at 687-2520.

So Get in the Gray Monkey Spirit!

Come and help us celebrate a Plaquemine tradition on Friday, April 15, 2016.
